

Would
You like me better
if my Eyes were Blue?
Fleta Jan Brown.

WOULD YOU LIKE ME BETTER IF MY EYES WERE BLUE?

FLETA JAN BROWN.

Con Anima (With animation.)  $\text{♩} = 100$ .

p

1. In a gar - den, in the shade, Sat a
2. Eve - ry night, the sil - ver moon, Sure would

p R.H.

1. charm - ing lit - tle maid, And her spark - ling eyes were danc - ing, As a
2. watch these lov - ers spoon, And his coax - ing voice would ask her, If his

1. lit - the game they played, While a - most de - ter mined
2. love was all - in vain. He had heard that all bru -

1. youth Coy - ly ask'd her for the truth; But her eyes of brown looked
2. nettles, Were, in truth but great, co - quettes, So, with fer - vor on his

1. ve - ry shy - ly down, "And," quoth the maid:
2. knee, he, urged his plea, And said a - - gain:

1. ve - ry shy - ly down, "And," quoth the maid:
2. knee, he, urged his plea, And said a - - gain:

CHORUS.

"Would you like me bet - ter if my eyes were blue, And my heart was true, and I loved but you?" Would a lit - tle kiss Seem like per - fect bliss? Are you fond of pret - ty blondes or eyes of gray? Don't you think 't would pay if you'd tru - ly say That you tru - ly think you'd like me just a lit - tle bet - ter, If my eyes were blue? blue? DANCE.

